Author Diana Ensign’s “FAITH, HOPE, ACTION” Inspires Loving Care of Our Shared Earth Home

Hoosier Author’s Book, FAITH, HOPE, ACTION: Ushering in a New Earth Era, Together, offers a hopeful Earth Day message!

INDIANAPOLIS, MARCH/APRIL 2024 — Award-winning author, Diana J. Ensign, a two-time Independent Publisher Book Awards (IPPY) Gold Medal Winner and recipient of the Indiana Arts Commission Creative Entrepreneur Arts Fellowship, takes us on a yearlong nature quest in her newest book, Faith, Hope, Action, to learn how we can save our Earth.

Along this journey, Ensign meets with organic farmers, religious trailblazers, youth activists, Indigenous guides, environmental nonprofit leaders, wellness professionals, and environmental justice advocates. Ensign listens not only to people who care passionately about the future of our planet, she also listens attentively to Mother Earth for that deep well of wisdom that comes from spending reflective time in nature.

A testimonial from Charlie Wiles, Executive Director, Center for Interfaith Cooperation, states, “Diana Ensign’s thoughtful, in-depth, and insightful book, Faith, Hope, Action, illuminates a path for all to follow. Her inspiring message brings to mind a quote from Cesar Chavez, ‘It starts with your heart and radiates out.’”

Gabriel Filippelli, PhD, Executive Director, Indiana University Environmental Resilience Institute, and author of Climate Change and Life concurs. “Faith, Hope, Action is a welcome reflection on the need for urgency in caring for our planet and our fellow global inhabitants. ... Most importantly, this book imparts the message that change occurs in community and in conversation with each other.”

Ensign says, “Together, we will find our way forward, toward healthy people and a healthy planet.” The book concludes with Discussion Topics for conducting group conversations on Earth sustainability issues.
