Hoosier Author Diana Ensign's new book, FAITH, HOPE, ACTION, Inspires Loving Care of Our Earth Home

A 2024 Creative Renewal Arts Fellow and a Gold Medal Winner of The Bookfest Book Awards!

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2024 — Award-winning author, Diana Ensign, is an Indy Arts Council 2024-2026 Creative Renewal Arts Fellow (with support from Lilly Endowment Inc.), a two-time Independent Publisher Book Awards (IPPY) Gold Medal Winner, a BookFest Gold Medal Winner, and a recipient of the Indiana Arts Commission Creative Entrepreneur Arts Fellowship. Her newest book, Faith, Hope, Action: Ushering in a New Earth Era, Together, takes us on a journey to discover how we can help our communities enact healthy Earth care measures.

In her two-year nature trek, Ensign meets with regenerative farmers, religious trailblazers, youth activists, Indigenous guides, environmental nonprofit leaders, wellness professionals, and environmental justice advocates. Ensign listens not only to people who care passionately about the future of our planet, she also listens attentively to Mother Earth for that deep well of wisdom that comes from spending reflective time in nature.

As she says, "Together, we will find our way forward, toward healthy people and a healthy planet." Included at the end of the book are Sustainability Discussion Topics to foster group conversations and community actions.

"Diana Ensign's thoughtful, in-depth, and insightful book, Faith, Hope, Action, illuminates a path for all to follow. Her inspiring message brings to mind a quote from Cesar Chavez, 'It starts with your heart and radiates out.'"—Charlie Wiles, Executive Director, Center for Interfaith Cooperation

"Faith, Hope, Action is a welcome reflection on the need for urgency in caring for our planet and our fellow global inhabitants. … This book imparts the message that change occurs in community and in conversation with each other."—Gabriel Filippelli, PhD, Executive
